

Report 11.01.2020

The application development process is progressing, there are noticeable changes. So far we have done the Login, Register view and we are also working on the profile options that the user will have Bleron Uka: worked on database development and data processing to come from client-side, also Bleron worked on validation of inputs and security. Bleron worked for 20 hours this week.

Arbnor Bajra: worked on frontend and he is designing user profile this week and testing login and register inputs that he have done this week. Arbnor worked 18 hours this week.